

10 Things everyone at CDC should know about the Stephen B. Thacker Library

1. Get 24/7 access to thousands of articles, databases, e-Books, research guides, and more.
2. Need something we don't have? We'll order it promptly for you through DocExpress.
3. Get expert help with your research or systematic review by requesting a Literature Search.
4. Learn how to become an expert searcher by taking a Training Course.
5. Save time and effort by downloading the citation management software, EndNote.
6. Keep on top of the latest research by following Science Clips.
7. Track your scholarly impact by using Altmetric and following the Citation Leaderboard.
8. Find a 24/7 quiet space to work or schedule a meeting in one of our meeting rooms.
9. Exercise while you work by using our Walking Workstation.
10. Email us at cdclibrary@cdc.gov with questions or to schedule a consultation.

Visit our intranet site <http://intranet.cdc.gov/library/>

About the Collection

- ▶ 97,000+ unique electronic or print materials, including journals and books
- ▶ 100+ research databases
- ▶ 850+ literature searches and systematic reviews completed each year

Ask a Librarian

Email:

- ▶ cdclibrary@cdc.gov

Phone:

- ▶ Atlanta – Main Library
 - 404.639.1717
- ▶ Cincinnati-Hamilton Branch
 - 513.841.4460
- ▶ Cincinnati-Taft Branch
 - 513.533.8321
- ▶ Morgantown Branch
 - 304.285.5886
- ▶ Pittsburgh Branch
 - 412.386.4431

The Main Library

Located in Atlanta, GA on the Roybal campus on the 1st floor of building 19. The library is open 24/7, and the reference desk is open from 8:00am-4:30pm.

